John Kennedy, President of Harlem Loan Association, Offers $3,000 Through Evening World for Return of Little Kate Flanagan-$500 from Benjamin Hurtig-Mother on Verge of Mental Collapse-Kidnapper a Woman?

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EVENING WORLD:

With a sense of deep sympathy for the grieving parents of little Kathleen Flanagan, who, I understand, has been kidnapped, and prompted by a desire to do something for the protection of little children from a like fate, I authorize you to offer in my name A REWARD OF $1,000 FOR THE RE-TURN, ALIVE, OF LITTLE KATHLEEN to her parents and the conviction of the person or persons implicated in her

I, too, have little ones of Kathleen's age, and with a father's heart appreciate the sorrow of Mr. Flanagan and his stricken wife. Very truly yours,

JOHN KENNEDY, President Harlem Loan Association.

Late this afternoon Mr. Kennedy called up The Evening World and increased his offer of reward to $3.000.
